Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

About this application and your duty

When you apply for life insurance, we conduct a process called underwriting. It's how we decide whether we can cover you, and if so on what terms and at what cost.

We will ask questions we need to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you give us in response to our questions is vital to our decision.

The duty to take reasonable care

When applying for insurance, there is a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer before the contract of insurance is entered into.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

The duty also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be changed. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced.

Please note that there may be circumstances where we later investigate whether the information given to us was true. For example, we may do this when a claim is made.

Guidance for answering our questions

You are responsible for the information provided to us. When answering our questions, please:

- think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure about any question, we are here to help and you can contact us.
- answer every question.
- answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it.
- review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted, and
- you must not assume that we will contact your doctor for any medical information. If you are unsure about whether you should include information or not, please include it.

Your duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation continues until the time your insurance cover starts. The duty applies when you answer questions in your application and whenever we obtain more information from you.

If you need help

It's important that you understand this information and the questions we ask. Ask us or your adviser for help if you need help understanding the process of buying insurance or answering our questions.

If you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason, we're here to help and can provide additional support for anyone who might need it. If you want, you can have a support person you trust with you.

What can we do if the duty is not met?

If the person who answers our questions does not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, there are different remedies that may be available to us. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put us in the position we would have been in if the duty had been met.

For example we may:

- avoid the cover (treat it as if it never existed);
- vary the amount of the cover; or
- vary the terms of the cover.
- Whether we can exercise one of these remedies depends on a number of factors, including:
 - whether the person who answered our questions took reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation. This depends on all of the relevant circumstances;
 - what we would have done if the duty had been met - for example, whether we would have offered cover, and if so, on what terms;
 - whether the misrepresentation was fraudulent; and
 - in some cases, how long it has been since the cover started.

Before we exercise any of these remedies, we will explain our reasons, how to respond and provide further information, including what you can do if you disagree.

This form can be used to apply for insurance under the fund if the applicant:

- is less than 55 years of age
- applies for Salary Continuance only cover up to a maximum of $8,000 per month (including any existing cover)
- and Death only or Death / TPD up to the maximum limit of $1 million, (including any existing cover)
- answers 'No' to all questions in Section C 'Personal Details'. (Please refer to Section C 'Health/Lifestyle Questions' before proceeding to complete this form)

If you do not meet the 4 conditions mentioned on the previous page, and intend on answering 'Yes' to any of the Health/Lifestyle questions in Section C (next page), do not complete and return this form. You will instead need to complete the Request for Insurance Form located on resourcesuper.com.au in the forms section.

Information about genetic tests

If you have had a genetic test, you only need to disclose this to us if your total insurance cover (including cover under superannuation or held with other life insurers as well as cover applied for) will be more than any one of the following:

- $500,000 life cover, or
- $500,000 total and permanent disability cover (TPD), or
- $200,000 critical illness (trauma) cover, or
- $4,000 a month income protection cover, salary continuance cover or business expenses cover.

Your cover may have been arranged through a financial adviser or directly with a life insurance company or cover is held under a group arrangement.

If you have had a favourable (negative) genetic test result you can provide this information regardless of the amount of cover applied for.

We have explained to you the duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation that you are under when applying for cover with us, and want to take a moment to explain why it is so important.

You and your family's future and your ability to earn an income or maintain your business are worth protecting. To help ensure you and your loved ones are covered, we need to ask the following questions on your health and individual circumstances.

Please ensure that all your answers are accurate and correct. Failure to provide the correct information on any question may result in the company altering or voiding your policy, which may mean a claim will not be payable when you and your family need it most.
